

Project Review - Ceded Review Basic Process

Note:
Ceded Review is the same as
"External IRB"
in ESTR.

1. The IRB is notified of a ceded review request (in one of two ways)

1. Application is submitted to IRB office, through ESTR	OR	2. IRB Staff enter the Cede Review Request into ESTR on behalf of the study team
<ul style="list-style-type: none">The application is submitted for standard review and is found to qualify for ceded reviewAn IAA Request Form is attached indicating a request for the Harvard IRB to rely on another institution		<ul style="list-style-type: none">An IAA Form indicating a request for the Harvard IRB to rely on another institution is sent to the Harvard IRB via email or other method outside of ESTRThe request for Harvard to rely on another institution is submitted through Catalyst and the IRB receives a Catalyst notice

2. While the submission is in pre-review; the Cede Initial Submission Activity is completed by IRB Staff

- Confirmation letter is created and sent to study team.
- Ceded studies may be viewed via the Ceded Studies or All Submissions tabs on Personal Page
