

Ceded Review - Record action of IRB of record

If the IRB determines that relying on another institution is appropriate, information about IRB of record may be entered into the system.

- The option to 'cede initial submission' is only available when an initial study is in pre-review, before the pre-review activity is completed.
- IRB Authorization Agreement and IRB approval letter may be attached.
- Additional actions may be recorded after the "cede initial submission" activity is completed.
- Only a member of the IRB office can complete this activity.

Steps

1. Go to the main study workspace
2. Select the 'cede initial submission' activity
3. Complete the activity form (right).
4. Select ok.

Note:
Ceded Review is the same as "External IRB" in ESTR.

Cede Initial Submission

This IRB has determined to cede review to another institution. Executing this activity will change the study state to the Post-Review state; Upon sending the determination letter, the study will transition to the Ceded Review state.
